

6 - THE McMAHON'S SQUARES

By 1920, in the army of India, the major of artillery and British mathematician McMahon created this game made with 24 squares.

Two squares can be placed side by side when the common sides have the same color.

Using more than 20 squares, make a rectangle.